Principal's Message

On behalf of all the school I express appreciation to the Annual Staff and to their sponsor, Mrs. Mitchell, for their efforts in making this book possible. We shall treasure it for years to come.

An Annual represents many fine things to each of us. This Annual serves to show the progress that has been made over the years. Every person that is connected with Saks School should take pride in the work that has been accomplished. The school community has cooperated in every way to make Saks a better school; in fact, this yearbook is a good example of the cooperation that exists between students, teachers, and community.

I wish for each of you the very best in every endeavor you undertake.

Sincerely,

W. E. MELLOWN, JR.

Alma Mater

Red and White our colors true, we to thee do sing;
Year by year the ages through, whatever fate may bring.
We may falter, but we'll try, and never go astray,
With Saks High School and all she stands for
As our guide and stay.

Courage, honor, faith that's strong, for these things we'll strive;
And we're sure to ne'er go wrong, with Saks High as our guide.
Years may come, and years may go,
But we'll ne'er forget the way, as Saks High School
And all she stands for, remains our guide and stay.

Mickey Craton wrote this because Joe Dice wrote his name in his annual too many times and Mickey didn't like it so Mickey is going to write his name and notes in Joe Dice's annual to get even with Joe Dice so that Joe Dice will learn his lesson and not write Joe Dice's name all over Mickey Craton's annual. So, Joe Dice, I hope this will teach you a lesson and not write your name all over my annual.

Thanks! O.K.

Good Luck in the future!

Mickey Craton

We, the Echo Staff, wish to express our sincere thanks to the people who helped to make this yearbook possible. Our thanks go to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Howell for the use of their home to make our Who's Who pictures; to the teachers of Saks High School, Mr. Mellown, and Mrs. Mitchell, our sponsor, for their cooperation; to the photographers; to our advertisers; and to the students who purchased the books.

We hope you will enjoy this book as much as we have enjoyed bringing it to you.

Sincerely yours,

Judy Hill
